

I am opposed to a separate sub band for cw/narrow band modes on 160M.
This proposal would provide preferential treatment for a relatively small group of operators.
The interference complaints cited are covered under existing regulations.
Existing agreements are in place in the amateur community have been quite effective for many years.
Finally, considering these points, I think the preferential treatment which exists on other amateur bands for cw/narrow band modes should be rescinded.